Entrepreneurship and Management

'Start Ups'

ESM I

About the Course:

It is an interdisciplinary self designed course with flexibility of curriculum design change as per the topic of the course. The topic at the course may change year to year depending upon the thrust area of the Interdisciplinary Course.

Concept: Making of a Successful Entrepreneur.

- To start a business, it's essential to learn the specific skills that underpin these qualities. It's also important to develop entrepreneurial skills if you're in a job role where you're expected to develop a business, or "take things forward" more generally.
- Participants in Entrepreneurship and Management program go through an accelerated learning experience that combines theoretical rigor with practical applicability. It includes
 - Collaborative: Work in Groups, learn from peers, and build faster networks.
 - Trans-Disciplinary- Expose yourself to several perspective, tap into multiple talents and expertise.
 - Learning how to learn: Explore new fields, synthesize insights, build hypothesis, run experiments

Course Curriculum

- It certainly helps to have strong technology skills or expertise in a key area, but these are not defining characteristics of entrepreneurship.
- Instead, the key qualities are traits such as creativity, the ability to keep going in the face of hardship, and the social skills needed to build great teams.
- To enable a student to start an enterprise, he learns from the best in the field while observing the path-breaking work of some of the most successful start-ups in the country, each of which have design as their core business idea.

CONCEPT NOTE OF EDUCATIONAL CONCLAVE – CAMPUS TO CORPORATE

“It is not unemployment that is the major problem, it is the question of un-employability which is the major crisis in the competitive arena.”

- Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam

Unemployment is a major issue in India. As reported by the Periodic Labour Force Survey (PLFS) of the National Sample Survey Office (NSSO), the overall unemployment rate in the country is 6.1% (2018).

With a population of 1.2 billion approximately, India has the youngest population in the world. Young graduates are qualified with academic skills. However, the current academic system merely turns a blind eye towards skill development of the youth. To be employable is beyond acquiring degrees. It requires various skills as well.

With this idea in mind, R.D. and S.H. National College is organizing an Educational Career Conclave titled: “From Campus to Corporate” on Saturday, March 07th, 2020 for the Second and Third Year Undergraduate Students.

The Program Outline is as follows:

Session I: Inauguration Time: 10 am to 10.30 am

Keynote address by industry stalwarts.

Session II: Panel Discussion with CEOs Time: 10.30 am to 11.30 am

The Chief Executives Officers (CEO) discussion panel is an exclusive event whereby invited executives participate and talk about their experiences and background that they have invested in creating high-performing organisations and how they managed to support the best practices in their organisations for improving the outcomes for customers while reducing costs and increasing bottom line.

The panel of experts will engage in interactive discussions with the participants and engage in finding a path forward on the issues raised before the panel using real-life stories in dealing with strategies on how the tools and techniques of total quality management can help take quality concepts a much higher level.

.List of Panelists

- Mr. Niranjana Hiranandani: Entrepreneur, co-founder and Managing Director of Hiranandani Group
- Mr. Ranjit Shahani, Advisor, Novartis India Ltd.
- Mr. Akhil Shahani, Managing Director, The Shahani Group

Session III: Workshop on Facing a Group Discussion/ Case Study Analysis

TiGroup Discussions (GD) and Personal Interviews (PI) are standard selection tools for entry into the corporate sector. While an aspirant's academic record, work experience (if any) and scores in the entrance test qualify him/her for an interview call, the final selection depends largely on his/her performance in the 'last mile.'

Therefore, a workshop has been designed to train the students on one of the important entry cards to an organization- Group Discussion. The workshop will be divided into two phases:

Phase I- Group Discussion/ Case Study

Round 1:

An external Trainer will conduct the session with a group of students. 12 students will be selected for the Mock GD. The other students in the Auditorium will view the "Live GD/ Case Study" session to understand the Do's and Don'ts of a Formal Group Discussion. The Expert will give the topic and interpret their behavior, communication skills, team participation, analytical skills, leadership qualities, non-verbal communication, presence of mind, content, usage of content to present the ideas. The expert will simultaneously guide the group as well as the audience present about the essential elements of Group Discussion.

Round 2:

After one round of mock session with guidance from the expert, the second round of Group discussion/ Case Study would be conducted by implementing the guidelines which are explained in the first round. The role of the trainer would be passive and he would evaluate and select the best candidates out of the group.

Post the live session, there will be an open question and answer session for the audience.

Session IV: Networking with Industry Professionals

Networking becomes a priority in a job search strategy. Networking is a skill, not a talent. From a company standpoint, employees hired through referrals save the company money during the recruitment process. One cannot attend one networking event, meet one industry professional, ask for referral and wait for the industry job of one's dreams.

A student needs to start networking and investing in building relationships while one is still at the undergraduate level. Therefore, a student needs to start adding value to the professionals that a student connects with.

Session V: Valedictory Session

On successfully completing the entire day, students will be given a certificate for attending the Educational Conclave.

INDUSTRIAL VISIT 2019-20

Report on Industrial visit to Navneet Ltd.

On 29th February 2020, a zealous Industrial visit was organized for FYBMS, A division & SYBMS students to Navneet Ltd. Its head office for export is located in Vasai. In all 43 students had accompanied a BMS faculty – Ms. Darshana Kamble.

The permission for the same was granted by the head branch manager at Navneet Ltd. The Industrial Visit was strongly related to the subjects like Production and total quality management. As soon as the students reached, they were welcomed with snacks and tea. The groups of 15 students were made and they were sent simultaneously to visit entire production unit. One supervisor accompanied each group to guide the students about how the process takes place and also provided information about each and every aspect. The students got an opportunity to witness different machines and technology which help improve the production speed.

Later, they arranged a seminar for the students where they showed a short film depicting the founder of Navneet and its entire journey. They showed all their brands as well as their offices and how they function. Post this seminar, they arranged a small stall of export quality books for the students to buy foreign goods at very nominal rates. Various books and diaries were available in affordable prices. MAGAZINE INTERNSHIP WITH KHAR GYMKHANA

REPORT

According to Iyanla Vanzant "Things have a way of working out". What other way could be better than allowing art students to show off their skills? Our college R.D. National and Principal Dr. Neha Jagtiani gave us the incredible opportunity to work with the Khar Gymkhana's Pulse magazine. For us, this two-month internship, which ran from July 1 to August 31, was a bit of an exciting roller coaster ride.

Three students were chosen out of 11-15 applicants, two for content writing and journalism, one for photography, following an interview with each applicant by Ms. Purnima Lakhiani and Mrs. Sohaya Kodikal. Later, we also built connections with the students at the MET Institute of Management, and a bright team of eight interns, including our editor Ms. Purnima Lakhiani, our proofreader Mr. Prem Popli, our lead columnist Dr. Sangeeta Tandon, and our photographer Mr. Ashish Vyas, was assembled. It was drilled into us to experiment with various writing, design, and interview idioms. We had the chance to speak with, learn from, photograph, and write about the fascinating stories of the prestigious personalities who frequent Khar Gymkhana. Everyone there, from well-known athletes like Mervyn Fernandez and Vikram Malhotra to trainers like Nitesh More and staff workers like Sandesh Gamare, has a special tale that should be heard and used as inspiration. Every intern was required to record all interviews and transcript them, something all the interns put a lot of effort into.

No matter how much editing, justification, or late nights Purnima mam had to put in for us after the first draft was finished, she continued to assist us until the final draft was produced, checked, and accepted by the interviewee. Purnima ma'am and Sohaya ma'am made sure that one of them was by our side for the first several significant interviews, giving us the appropriate amount of support, direction, and assurance. She was the strict disciplinarian, but also the funniest, most wise, and most experienced teacher. After finishing all the work, we shared a fun meal together as part of our sessions. During the lunch hour, new insights, anecdotes, and mutual respect were acquired. Purnima mam organised a number of workshops on improved communication techniques and better writing styles for all of us to attend and learn from, in addition to the technical aspects on which she concentrated. Her rising enthusiasm for literature and the arts inspired us to do better and be better. Our professional introductions and the components that went into them were taught to us, and they will continue helping us going further in our careers. Although we acquired many amazing skills, I will always remember the ability to connect with the person in front of you and give them the confidence and comfort to share their experiences, both positive and negative. The entire Pulse editing staff worked to ensure that the kids were inspired, at ease, and delighted with every aspect of the literary work they were creating.

We had created two really remarkable publications towards the end of the internship, "The Afterburner" and "The Finishline," and we were all quite eager to see them come to life. In addition to receiving their certificate and opportunity to share their experiences in the Pulse magazine, the interns also had a departure ceremony organised for both National and MET institute to which other pupils, their respective teachers, members of the Khar gymkhana, and principals were invited.

INTRODUCTION

On January 11, 2023, a group of BSc IT students visited the Yotta Data Center as part of an industrial visit organized by our college. The visit aimed to provide us with practical insights into data center operations and infrastructure, enabling us to bridge the gap between theory and real-world applications.

OVERVIEW OF YOTTA DATA CENTER

Yotta Data Center is a state-of-the-art facility that houses advanced computing infrastructure for handling large-scale data processing and storage requirements. It is renowned for its reliability, security, and energy efficiency. The center offers a wide range of services, including colocation, cloud computing, disaster recovery, and managed hosting.

RECEPTION AND ORIENTATION

Upon arrival at Yotta Data Center, we were warmly welcomed by the staff. They provided us with an overview of the center's operations, highlighting the critical role it plays in supporting various industries' digital transformation. We were given an orientation to familiarize ourselves with the facility's layout and the different areas we would be visiting.

C. SECURITY MEASURES: Yotta Data Center places great emphasis on security. We learned about the multiple layers of physical and digital security measures in place, including biometric access controls, surveillance cameras, fire suppression systems, and intrusion detection systems.

D. NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE: The tour also covered the network infrastructure that enables connectivity within the data center and to external networks. We saw the networking equipment, fiber optic cables, and network switches used for data transmission.

DATA CENTER OPERATIONS:

During the visit, we had the opportunity to interact with the data center staff and gain insights into their day-to-day operations. We learned about the various roles and responsibilities involved in managing the data center, such as network engineers, system administrators, and security personnel. They shared their experiences and answered our questions, providing valuable practical knowledge.

EMERGING TECHNOLOGIES:

Yotta Data Center also showcased some of the emerging technologies they are implementing. We were introduced to concepts such as edge computing, artificial intelligence (AI), and machine learning (ML) in the context of data center operations. This highlighted the ongoing advancements in the field and the need for IT professionals to stay updated with the latest trends.

CONCLUSION:

The industrial visit to Yotta Data Center proved to be an enlightening experience for the BSc IT students. It provided us with a deep understanding of data center infrastructure, operations, and the critical role data centers play in supporting digital transformation. The visit enhanced our knowledge and complemented our academic curriculum by bridging the gap between theory and practical implementation.

We express our gratitude to the Yotta Data Center staff for their warm hospitality and for sharing their expertise with us. This industrial visit has undoubtedly broadened our horizons and will positively impact our future careers in the IT industry.

Visit to RBI Monetary Museum

Students of Bachelor of Management Studies of R.D. & S.H. National College & S.W.A. Science College visited the RBI Monetary Museum on Thursday 25th August, 2022. This visit was headed by our professors Ms Darshana Kamble and Ms Suman Dhanani under the guidance and support of BMS Coordinator, Dr Nikisha Kukreja.

The RBI Monetary Museum was established by the Reserve Bank of India in 2004 and was inaugurated by Hon'ble Former President of India Dr APJ Abdul Kalam.

Money is an intrinsic component of the cultural heritage of a country mirroring its socio-economic history. India was one of the earliest issuers of coinage in the world and has been home to many-a-monetary experiments recorded in history.

The RBI Monetary Museum aims at documenting and preserving this heritage. The Museum proposes to put in place permanent, temporary and itinerant exhibits of the representative coinage of India, paper currency, gold bars as well as financial instruments and curiosities down the ages. It also aims at stimulating research and study on the evolution of money around the Indian Ocean Rim and disseminating information to the Public about currency & finance.

Since we all know money is a lifeline for every human being. Money can help us purchase any resources, help in running our businesses. In ancient times there was no concept of money. People used the barter system but the barter system had many problems such as Lack of common measure of value, difficulties in storage of goods, problems in deferred payments, indivisibility of certain goods etc.

Money has come by Evolution and not by Revolution. We all know the basic functions of money that are medium of exchange and measure of value. The field visit gave us great knowledge as to how people in ancient times used first coins as money. The coins displayed in the monetary museum by RBI showed how every kingdom, states used different forms of coins in every era. The RBI has beautifully displayed coins of various kingdoms starting from BCE era till AD era which even include kingdoms of Maharashtra, Hyderabad, Kashmir, Mughal era etc.

The museum set up by RBI has a very organised and systematic display where the students got to know how the coins in ancient times used to look. The bank even displayed the paper currency, coins used during the Portuguese and British rule.

As per the RBI sources, the Government of India continued to issue currency notes till the Reserve Bank of India was established on 1st April, 1935. When the one-rupee note was reintroduced as a war time measure in August, 1940, it was issued by the Government of India with the status of a coin. The Government of India continued to issue Rupee one notes till 1994.

The museum did not just have coins and currencies but it also had old physical form certificates. In this digital era, as the students are also learning about shares, accounts, debentures in the electronic form, it was very refreshing for the students to see physical share certificates and also how accounting books looked back in the day.

The visit to RBI Monetary Museum finally put an end to the student's curiosity. The museum has even displayed the old calculators which were used by the analysts for office use.

museum has even explained about the first demonetization that took place in India in 1946 and the present demonetization in 2016. The museum has even posted portraits of former RBI Governors as well.

It was indeed an interesting visit to the museum as the Bachelor of Management Studies students got a lot of information regarding the evolution of money within India.

The Field Visit was organized On 16th February, 2022, a field visit was organized by ICAI WIRC Chairman CA Manish Gadia with R.D. & S.H. National College of Arts and Commerce & S.W.A. Science College, the Faculty of Commerce, Department of Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting and Finance) (BAF) to ICAI from 2 pm to 4 pm. The objective of the visit was to orient on career guidance and the scope of CA (Chartered Accountancy) which lead to Entrepreneurship. Dr. Mukesh Kanojia, Co-ordinator of B.Com (Accounting and Finance) had organized this Visit along with Prof. Akbar Ali Hatim & Mr. Pravin Panigrahi, faculty member.

The Chairman CA Manish Gadia of the ICAI addressed the student regarding the future of CA as well as the scope of it as a B.Com (Accounting and Finance) student.

The session started with the anthem song of ICAI, 'ye esasuptesujagarti' which means the one whose awake in those who sleep, shaping desires after desires, that, indeed, is the purse.

Dr. Mukesh Kanojia introduced all the dignities to the student after which CA Prakash Valecha sir gave a basic outline of the session telling us more about the auditorium where the session held. We were also taken for a tour of the building, where we saw the classrooms, the IT labs, and the famous ICAI Library.

CA Arpit Kabra Secretary of ICAI WIRC inspired the students with a small question and answer round, asking the student the purpose of the visit. He shared the importance of a CA and how the course was different than most financial course.

The dignities talked about their experience as a CA and how they grew in their field and how students too can become masters of their mind with dedication, passion and focus. In the end, there was also a question and answer round to resolve all the doubts that rose in the minds of the students. These questions were answered by CA Prakash Valecha who also gave us an in depth knowledge about how one can opt for CA and the preparations required along with the examination pattern. He also spoke about the increasing demand of CA and the job opportunities available after doing the course.

The total 100 students attended the session. Feedback was taken at the end of the session in form of short interviews where students were asked about their experience. Majority of the students were motivated to pursue CA course.

Ms. Kritika Soni, a student of First Year, B.COM Accounting and Finance, proposed the final vote of thanks after which tea and coffee were available for everyone. Overall the session was highly interactive.

Antimicrobial activity of different samples on Aspergillus niger, Candida albicans, Escherichia coli, *Pseudomonas aeruginosa

Sample submitted by = Miss. Daraksha (National College, Bandra)

No. of samples submitted = 12 samples, reported as organic extracts

Sample label=DA1,DA2,DA3,DA4,DA5,DA6,DA7,DA8,DA9,DA10,DA11,DA12 .

Diluent used: Methanol

Sample preparation: 0.03 gm of sample was dissolved in 1 ml of diluent.

Test control: +C = Penicillin G 100 ppm were not used due to unavailability

Negative Test control: Methanol

Media: Mueller & Hinton Agar

Preparation of Inoculum:

A loopful of culture was inoculated in suitable broth and incubated for 24 hours. The culture OD was adjusted to 0.5 McFarland standard in order to get 1.5×10^8 CFU/ml. The cell suspension was vortexed to homogeneity to give final density of 1×10^6 CFU/ml.

Test Summary:

Antimicrobial Activity Test - Disk diffusion testing

The experiment was carried out according to Kirby-Bauer method with slight modifications as per protocol provided. Sterile filter paper discs (Whatman No1) 6mm in diameter were soaked with 15µL of sample. Disk soaked with 15µL Methanol was a negative control. The disks were placed on previously inoculated plates and incubated at 37°C for 24-48hrs and 72hrs. The zone of inhibition was measured.

Result:

It was observed that samples show zone of inhibition after incubation indicating the presence of antibacterial activity. thus happens to have Antifungal and Antibacterial activity.

Samples DA3,DA4,DA5,DA6,DA7,DA8,DA9,DA10,DA11,DA12 show antibacterial activity.

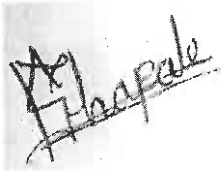

Samples DA1,DA4,DA6,DA7,DA8,DA9,DA10,DA11,DA12 show antifungal activity.

Samples DA4,DA6,DA7,DA8,DA9,DA10,DA11,DA12 show zone of inhibition against both Fungal and Bacterial cultures.

Sample DA2 does not show any antifungal or antibacterial activity as the zone of inhibition was absent.

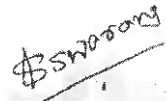

Conclusion:

The suggested Disk diffusion testing method against the test cultures was found to be effective. The zone of inhibition for Aspergillus Niger and Candida albican was more as compared to Escherichia coli, and Pseudomonas aeruginosa. This suggests that most of the sample contain better antifungal agents.
